TELEPHONE, RED 1021

San Diego, Cal. December 6, 1900.

John Muir, Esq.,

Yosemite, Cal.

My Dear Sir:-

I have followed you through many of the mountains of the coast, and have gotten from you a great deal of information that has been of great pleasure and profit to me, and I write now to see if you cannot give me some more.

I am tired of brown and black bear and want to get a grizzly, and I thought it very probable that you could tell me where I might locate one about the time they come out next Spring, and if you can, it will be a source of great pleasure to me, I assure you.

Respectfully yours,

Oscar A. Trippet
